Payment PROOF For those who don't know carrom games, this is a strike and pocket game similar to billiards, or pools. Meanwhile, in Carr (also known as Carr or karom) players must hit and pocket the carrommen (coins) with the help of the striker of their choice, and the first to do so with the maximum number of Carrommen wins the game. One red coin, known as the queen, must be pocketed and then another carrommen if not returned to the centre. In the event of a draw, the user who will pocket the queen during the match wins. In Carrom Clash, matches often take place between 2 players where you need to pot all your respective pucks (black or white), except for one that acts as a cover for the queen. LETS PLAY- Once you enter the game you or your opponent will be asked to place the striker to take a shot. This is done by dragging the striker from left to right on the striker line after you know where to hit, drag your finger aimed at the coin and release to take the shot you committed FOUL If you pot the striker in the pocket, he is said to be foul. Note: Penalty coin returns to the board when foul is committed How to win? The first player to pot all the pucks including the queen is identified as the winner. Why play Carrom Clash Game?
